Rosalind Picot

Dear "Wise Little Picot,"

In spite of everything I'll always sort of think of you by that name.

Well, this is where we go our separate ways. No use trying to tell you all that stuff about what a good friend you've been, and how much I like you, and how I've enjoyed being here these two years with you - all that stuff goes without saying.

We've really had some good times together and some bad ones too, boy! I suppose we were both serious in some of those fusses sometimes, but all that is now forgiven and forgotten.

Don't you forget your little O.O.S., and be good and work hard, and please don't take little things too seriously, and just let yourself go and be happy. I'm pretty good at giving out that advice, huh?

I wish you <sup>all the</sup> success, and happiness, and love in the world. Stay close to our Lord and His Blessed Mother, and remember They will always help if you ask.

Write me soon, and we'll get together sometime in July when you get to Mercy. You'll always be in my prayers, little Picot, and you please pray for Bill and me.

Love always,
Cato

FOREWORD

"All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players..."

With this production of the Gradatim, the curtain will have closed on the performances of the graduates of 1953. As you peruse the pages of this volume, we trust that you will be inspired with the spirit of the characters that flit across its pages -- with their "exits and their entrances" -- from the first Act until the final curtain call.

THE GROTTTO

DEDICATION

As the curtain rises on this, our final performance, we pause to pay tribute to SISTER MARY HELEN, our librarian, for her generous and untiring devotion to duty, her complete selflessness, and her Christlike patience. In recognition of these outstanding qualities and of her continued efforts to uphold the traditions of Sacred Heart scholastically, culturally, and religiously, we gratefully dedicate this volume, our 1953 GRADATIM.

COUNCIL MEMBERS AT

Eight academy council leaders from O'Donoghue School, Charlotte, and Reverend Vincent B. Waters, student representatives from Raleigh.

The meeting opened at 8 o'clock, and many profitable hours were spent discussing the various student government projects now being carried out in the city of Raleigh. Sister Mary, because of her illness, was invited in and gave a message. Sister Elizabeth, spiritual adviser, was also in this meeting by Sister Mary. Sister Mary, who, Patricia Hagley, the line, Judy Campbell, and Sister, and Emma Hulse.

To Greensboro Meeting. Sister Elizabeth Hulse, accompanied by six council members will leave at noon Friday, November 14 for Greensboro, where the Women's College of the University of North Carolina will convene a statewide conference for high school student council representatives.

The delegation will also attend a conference on the subject of student government. The dinner table will be the center of the attention when the girls meet and talk about their plans and the future of the state's student movement. Problems involved

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The student government of Sacred Heart was entirely re-organized this year. Separate councils were set up for the college and the academy, thereby allowing each to handle its own problems. The councils, made up of the elected leaders of the students, represent the student body in all affairs. This association is intended to give the students Christian ideals through character training, and it is so organized that each student has the responsibility of seeing to its success.

"To Jesus through Mary" is not only an aspiration to girls of Sacred Heart; it is a firm basis of everyday living. Our Lady is our model for perfection, our guide in times of tribulation, and our intercessor with her Divine Son. It is under her motherly love and understanding that we place ourselves and under her mantle of blue that we seek refuge.

THE GLEE CLUB

Anyone venturing into Victory Hall between one and two on Tuesdays and Thursdays will hear the melodic strains of the Glee Club practice drifting down the corridor. This proves that our beautiful Christmas and spring concerts are not made in heaven but in the practice hall under the expert direction of our beloved director, Mr. Douglas A. Smith.

THE CHOIR

To our Choir and especially to its director, Sister M. Incarnata, we owe thanks for the beauty of high Masses, Benedictions, and special religious services on the campus. Hard work is entailed with scheduled practices twice a week, but satisfying reward awaits each member as she finds herself participating in the unequalled beauty of the Liturgy.

STUDY CLUB

Every other Tuesday evening, the Catholic college girls and academy juniors and seniors, meet to discuss practical religious matters. They are under the able leadership of Father Sebastian Doris, O.S.B. Topics considered this year have included the Sacraments and the Mass.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, composed of second year students and exceptional first year students, this year sponsored a Latin Week. The members also attended a Latin Forum at Winthrop College, Rock Hill. The purpose of this club is to give the students a greater appreciation of the classical language.

SCIENCE CLUB

The aim of the Science Club is to insure harmony and cooperation while carrying out a series of projects and activities toward the development of greater appreciation of the wonders of the universe and thus to increase in the love of and reverence for its Creator.

DAY STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

Newly organized this year, the club has as its purpose the fostering of cooperation among the day students and the boarders. In carrying out its program, the members, consisting of academy students, have sponsored a square dance and parties.

Acting as a supplement to the Home Economics classes, this club encourages its members in the practical appliance of class studies. During the year the students are instructed in meal planning and preparation, table setting and serving, cooking, homemaking and sewing. One particular activity of the organization was the establishment of the Good Grooming Club.

Both the college and the academy had active basketball varsities this year. The academy had scheduled games with Concord High School, Concord City League, and O'Donoghue, while the college played with Wingate and Brevard junior colleges.

The physical education program is designed with the hope of being able to reach every member of the student body. Its main purpose is to instill each student with good sportsmanship and teamwork. This year the classes participated in intramural basketball and softball games, an activity which provided good, clean competition among the classes. A field day was also sponsored to give everyone an opportunity to contribute to the success of her class.

MAY QUEEN

ROSE MARIE HAGLEY

With the coming of May, Sacred Heart looks forward to its May Day festival. The two-fold purpose of the program is to furnish entertainment and beauty.

The May Court is composed of a May Queen selected from the college sophomore class on the basis of character, personality, and initiative, as well as beauty. The Maid of Honor is chosen from the academy, and the attendants from the college classes and the academy junior and senior classes.

Dear Lancelind,

This is a sad day for Sacred Heart - to be losing the grand class of '53.
There are many things I'd like to say but one big one comes to mind -

Thank you for everything! Forgive and forget many things - just remember to pray for me in an etern specia way! I will be most grateful.

Keep sweet, good and close to him and his holy Mother
Mary always.

Love & prayers

S. M. H.
